Our Great Waist Sale

If you were in our Waist House the past few days and witnessed the great crowds that were attending this sale you would have good reason to imagine that everybody in Barre and vicinity were buying Waists. The buying crowds prove two things: When we advertise a special sale of Waists the public have confidence and respond readily and they know that agreeable money-saving surprises await them. In this sale you have selection of the very newest ideas, showing original models, new sleeve effects, new imported embroideries and laces—not a few Waists of a style, but an immense variety of beautiful designs. Ask to see our 69c and 98c Waists. Sale is now going on in our Waist House. We close tomorrow night for a few days in order to move our stock to the new Howland Block.

Wardell Steele, aged 11 years, was arraigned in the city court yesterday afternoon on the charge of truancy from his school in the Mathewson building, and the case was continued until May 2, to give him a chance to do better, and if he attends school regularly the case will probably be dropped.

All aboard for Woodsville, N. H.: The spring ceremonial of Suadah temple, No. 140, D. O. K. K. is to be held at Woodsville next Thursday, April 28. It is expected that about 50 "dokes" will attend. Arrangements have been made for a special train over the Wells River, which will leave Barre at 4:45 Thursday afternoon. A class of about 25 tyros will be initiated.

Dreamland's Biograph picture, "The Converts," was witnessed last evening by hundreds of people, and much favorable comment was passed. To-night will be the last opportunity to see this powerful drama. "My Milliner's Bill," one of the other three pictures, is bright, snappy comedy. "Treachery of the Pequots," an Indian drama, is particularly interesting for real Indians take part.

The "Nick Carter" picture at the Bijou is fully as fascinating and thrilling as any of that famous fiction-hero's tales in novel form. Probably a better detective story in pictures has never been produced. Four more excellent pictures, some of which are "The Goddess of the Sea," "Two Little Tartars," "Yachting on the Baltic" and "A Little Vendean." The song "I Want a Girl from Yankee Doodle Town."

"The Japanese Honeymoon," redolent of the far East, the mysterious orient in which its scenes are laid, will be presented at the opera house Friday and Saturday by the well-known Herald Square company—some twenty odd singers, dancers and comedians, who comprise the popular musical gaiety organization. The new era in theatrical prices, the result of the anti-trust movement which overthrew several hundred New England theatres the past week, will be inaugurated by the Japanese Honeymoon company, the first high-class attraction at moderate prices.
